

Georgian Theatre – January 29th

The day of DURUJI . . . a historical day . . .

The past year – deluge, the grave of the old!..

The past year – celebration of DURUJI...

DURUJI – whip flamed in a strong hand...

DURUJI – action burst out of historical muscles...

* * *

The old theatre – reflection of artistic, slaved culture...

Lacking its own self-esteem...

Existing with petty bourgeoisie, faceless, unconcerned...

The old theatre was a sham of old Russia's provincial slapdash...

DURUJI is preparing a new obituary for it.

Because of DURUJI “tightly united” old buffaloes, together with some seemingly charitable Philistines, are again preparing to establish theatrical dilettantism in Georgia.

DURUJI is a solid rock erected against them.

DURUJI is their merciless whip.

* * *

DURUJI is a Revolution.

DURUJI – a new epoch of Georgian theatre.

Theatre with its own culture.

Theatre – knitted with the rhythm, speech, spirits and emotions of the Georgian race.

Georgian theatre – carved with its own will-power.

Georgian theatre – bearer of its own self.

Georgia theatre – with its own problems throughout the world.

Georgian theatre – reflector of the epoch spirits.

Georgian theatre – solid rock erected on its own muscles.

* * *

Actor – full of epoch rhythm.

Actor – ecstatic with racial dynamism.

* * *

DURUJI is a culture of new will-power in art.

DURUJI is the faith in one's own self-esteem and dignity in art.

DURUJI is the grave for slavery art.

DURUJI is the pulse of the new revolutionary epoch.

DURUJI is the trumpet of new art in Georgia.

DURUJI has acquired its friends: playwrights, artists, musicians and all the sunlit youth.

TO ALL ARTISTS!!!

Who anxiously feel the excitation of their own culture,

Who feel a new revolutionary epoch and endeavor to resound Georgian people's feelings in the apotheosis of the epoch.

DURUJI is appealing to them – to be blood brothers.

DURUJI – surrounded by coralline sunrays and encircled round its centaur – appeals with its steel good-will and iron-moulded discipline, towards a new culture in Georgia.

Then, let's go ahead!..

Let us see new a Georgia shine with its own culture on the world's horizon.
